FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE EDISON DOWNTOWN PRESENTS THE 2ND ANNUAL NIGHT OF COMEDY BENEFITTING THE MIDNIGHT MISSION AT THE COMEDY STORE

Los Angeles, CA (July 9, 2010) – The Edison Downtown is proud to present the 2nd Annual Night of Comedy, an all star benefit to support The Midnight Mission's life changing programs and services Sunday, August 1 at 7pm at the world famous Comedy Store on Sunset.

The annual Night of Comedy will feature Larry Miller, weatherman Fritz Coleman, Dwayne Perkins, Jessica Lovelace Chandler, Jenny Novak and Sarah Taylor with Ed Begley, Jr as special co-host.

Tickets are $25 and available for purchase online at www.midnightmission.org or by calling The Midnight Mission at 213.624.9258 x1246. There will also be an exciting and fun silent auction starting at 6:15pm. Proceeds benefit The Midnight Mission.

About The Midnight Mission

The Midnight Mission is one of the oldest, continuously operating human services organizations in the Los Angeles region. Centered in the Skid Row area of downtown LA, it provides life-changing therapies and programs for homeless and near-homeless men, women and children, including three nutritious meals a day, emergency shelter, hygiene and clothing, drug and alcohol recovery, education, career counseling and job placement. It also offers a comprehensive transitional housing program for homeless families who are striving to return to self sufficiency. For additional information contact Orlando Ward at 213.624.1024 or oward@midnightmission.org.

About the Edison

Experience LA's legendary nightlife in one of the world's most unique and visionary spaces, The Edison, located in Downtown's Historic Core, is an architecturally rich environment where you can come and enjoy classic and Artisanal cocktails, a select menu of signature food, and great entertainment.

Open Wednesday - Saturday nights. 108 W. Second Street, Los Angeles 90012.
