MUSIC WITH A MISSION – STRIKING A CHORD SINCE 2010

WHAT: Music With A Mission (MWAM) – Street Symphony’s Messiah Project Workshop

WHEN: Thursday – November 30, 2017 – 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

WHERE: The Midnight Mission, 601 S. San Pedro St., LA, CA 90014

WHO: STREET SYMPHONY
(<http://streetsymphony.org/>)

The Midnight is thrilled to welcome Street Symphony back for their 38th visit. Street Symphony, directed by LA Philharmonic Violinist Vijay Gupta, brings live musical outreach and educational workshops to audiences without access to the arts, throughout Southern California. Street Symphony ensembles perform at LA County Jails and homeless shelters in downtown Los Angeles, as well as public events for the community-at-large, aimed to raise awareness for issues of mental health, incarceration, and homelessness. Their mission at large is to bring music to the most underserved communities throughout L.A.

This program will be a workshop to prepare our community for the 3rd Annual Messiah Project set for Friday, December 8, 2017, from 2 pm to 4 pm in our Gym. Everyone is invited to lend their voices to this unique event where residents of the Skid Row community will sing alongside the Street Symphony Chamber Singers, comprised of members of the LA Master Chorale. We are also pleased to have partnered with the Urban Voices Project, a Skid Row singing project, as well as the City of Angels Community Choirs. The Messiah project will also feature vocal soloists and a composer from the Skid Row community, Midnight Mission Alumnus Ben Shirley, and a world-premiere of a new work developed with the homeless community.

WHY: The Midnight hosts Music With a Mission (MWAM) to entertain and inspire those living on Skid Row. Music is a survival tactic for many people in dealing with life’s difficulties. MWAM is aimed at bringing our community together through music. MWAM is quite simple. Musicians bring their instruments and play for our homeless and near-homeless guests. It is an intimate setting, so musicians have the opportunity to interact with our guests, answer questions and/or talk about music and its history. We encourage musicians to invite their fan base so they can engage and enjoy music with individuals they would not normally encounter in their daily lives. We are currently looking for sponsors for this ever-growing community event. If you are interested, please contact Georgia Berkovich at 213-624-4588 or gberkovich@midnightmission.org.
