MUSIC WITH A MISSION – STRIKING A CHORD SINCE 2010

WHAT: Music With A Mission (MWAM) – Peter Harper

WHEN: Thursday - August 17, 2017 - 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

WHERE: The Midnight Mission, 601 S. San Pedro St., LA, CA 90014

WHO: Peter Harper

Peter builds, cuts and carves out sound until his creation is something that when played pushes the air around you in a way that not just resonates in your ears, but deep down in the soul. Peter's approach to constructing music follows in the origins of his 20 years spent casting bronze as a gifted sculptor. "I believe in the tactility of music. Every song should be sculpted word by word, note by note and instrument by instrument until its true sound is revealed."

WHY: The Midnight hosts Music With a Mission (MWAM) to entertain and inspire those living on Skid Row. Music is a survival tactic for many people in dealing with life's difficulties. MWAM is aimed at bringing our community together through music. MWAM is quite simple. Musicians bring their instruments and play for our homeless and near-homeless guests. It is an intimate setting, so musicians have the opportunity to interact with our guests, answer questions and/or talk about music and its history. We encourage musicians to invite their fan base so they can engage and enjoy music with individuals they would not normally encounter in their daily lives. We are currently looking for sponsors for this ever-growing community event. If you are interested, please contact Georgia Berkovich at 213-624-4588 or gberkovich@midnightmission.org.
