MUSIC WITH A MISSION – STRIKING A CHORD SINCE 2010

WHAT: Music With A Mission (MWAM) – Carol Martini

WHEN: Thursday – September 20, 2018 – 2:00 pm to 3:30 pm

WHERE: The Midnight Mission, 601 S. San Pedro St., LA, CA 90014

WHO: Carol Martini www.carolmartini.net

A songwriter since age eleven, having given up the violin for the more “songwriter-friendly” acoustic guitar, she has already issued five independent CDs: The Story So Far, Piece By Piece, Modern Loneliness, The Rose In The Boxcar and Petals Of The Red Magnolia. This prolific singer-songwriter has just released her sixth album of original material titled Songs Of The Girl On The Swing. Her eclectic style encompasses such genres as rock, pop-rock, edgy folk-rock, adult contemporary and even a little country. Her genuine and sincere songs evoke a broad array of emotional responses from her listeners. This will be Carol's 7th visit, where she will share her talent with us. We are all looking forward to her return.

WHY: The Midnight hosts Music With a Mission (MWAM) to entertain and inspire those living on Skid Row. Music is a survival tactic for many people in dealing with life’s difficulties. MWAM is aimed at bringing our community together through music. MWAM is quite simple. Musicians bring their instruments and play for our homeless and near-homeless guests. It is an intimate setting, so musicians have the opportunity to interact with our guests, answer questions and/or talk about music and its history. We encourage musicians to invite their fan base so they can engage and enjoy music with individuals they would not normally encounter in their daily lives. We are currently looking for sponsors for this ever-growing community event. If you are interested, please contact Georgia Berkovich at 213-624-4588 or gberkovich@midnightmission.org.
