Local Iranian American Volunteers and The Midnight Mission to Hold 8th Annual Nowruz Celebration

The Midnight Mission has partnered with Iranian American community volunteers to stage the 8th annual Nowruz at The Midnight Mission on Friday, March 15, 2019, from 3:00 pm to 6:00 pm. Nowruz is the Iranian New Year celebration and this year's event is sponsored by SKECHERS USA, Inc., KIRN 670am Radio Iran, Sadaf/Soofer Company, The Satrap Family Trust, Shay Maghame, David Pourbaba, Setico, Inc., Blue Jay Center, Phil Paccione & Shoreen Maghame, The Razi Family Foundation, Bijan & Soraya Amin Foundation, Rancho Park Rotary Club, Pasha Behzadi, Santa Maria Commerce Center, Imperial Plaza and Justin's Fine Jewelry.

At a time when our nation is so painfully divided, it is important that we continue to hold events that bring our community together. Occasions like this show those in our Skid Row community, who often feel lost and forgotten, that people care and that there is hope for recovery from homelessness and its many causes.

The festive event will bring together the homeless and near-homeless community in Skid Row, Los Angeles with Iranian American volunteers. Last year, more than 150 volunteers participated in the Nowruz celebration at The Midnight Mission, resulting in more than 2,000 meals served and 4,000 articles of clothing distributed. Hundreds of volunteers, Iranian celebrities and local leaders are expected to join in this year's celebration.

The event will feature a traditional Nowruz meal of Iranian delicacies, as well as live musical entertainment and performances by dance ensembles. In keeping with the Nowruz tradition of gift giving to the family at the New Year, a selection of clothing will also be donated to each person in attendance as well.

Nowruz, a 3,000-year-old Iranian holiday for people of all faiths, honors a time of deep spirituality when light symbolically conquers darkness and people open their hearts to help those less fortunate than themselves.

The Midnight Mission embodies the spirit of Nowruz year-round and has been a source of revival and renewal for the homeless population of Los Angeles for more than a century. Although The Midnight Mission has never missed a meal service in all of its 105 years of operation, the organization provides much more than meal service. It is a resource for life-saving and life-changing programs that range from education and workforce development to health and wellness and the 12-step recovery for the homeless population of Los Angeles.

We thank our dedicated Nowruz Committee: Abbas Satrap, Ali Razi, Ardeshir Haerizadeh, Kane Biscaya, Fatemeh Satrap, Faye Wazzan, Fred Shooshani, Guity Javid, I.J. Eshaghian, Joseph Saeedian, Kamran Mohanna, Maryam Azarbayjani-Morovati, Sharam "Shay" Maghame, Shoreen Maghame, Max Javadi, Mehrnoush Yazdanyar and Niloufar Tabatabaie.
