Praise Alive is a 60 member high school choir from Green Acres Baptist Church in Tyler, Texas. The choir has performed at adult and youth prisons, children's homes, nursing homes, retirement centers, hospitals, Veteran's facilities, homeless shelters, as well as churches. They have worked with inner-city children and in soup kitchens. They provide several community concerts throughout the year and have performed with the East Texas Symphony, Charles Billingsley, Steve Green, Sandi Patti and many others. We are looking forward to their visit.

WHY: The Midnight hosts Music With a Mission (MWAM) to entertain and inspire those living on Skid Row. Music is a survival tactic for many people in dealing with life's difficulties. MWAM is aimed at bringing our community together through music. MWAM is quite simple. Musicians bring their instruments and play for our homeless and near-homeless guests. It is an intimate setting, so musicians have the opportunity to interact with our guests, answer questions and/or talk about music and its history. We encourage musicians to invite their fan base so they can engage and enjoy music with individuals they would not normally encounter in their daily lives. We are currently looking for sponsors for this ever-growing community event. If you are interested, please contact Georgia Berkovich at 213-624-4588 or gberkovich@midnightmission.org.
