The Midnight Mission (TMM) is delighted to welcome the Verdugo Hills Chorus for their 1st visit to our Music With A Mission program.

Verdugo Hills Chorus is a membership organization of female singers in the beautiful Glendale California area. They meet regularly to practice, perform, socialize and have fun. There are currently 50+ members of all ages, from all walks of life. These woman are a part of the chapter of Sweet Adeline's International, a non-profit organization of approximately 23,000 members in choruses and quartets worldwide.

WHY: The Midnight hosts Music With a Mission (MWAM) to entertain and inspire those living on Skid Row. Music is a survival tactic for many people in dealing with life's difficulties. MWAM is aimed at bringing our community together through music. MWAM is quite simple. Musicians bring their instruments and play for our homeless and near-homeless guests. It is an intimate setting, so musicians have the opportunity to interact with our guests, answer questions and/or talk about music and its history. We encourage musicians to invite their fan base so they can engage and enjoy music with individuals they would not normally encounter in their daily lives. We are currently looking for sponsors for this ever-growing community event. If you are interested, please contact Georgia Berkovich at 213-624-4588 or gberkovich@midnightmission.org.
