WHERE: The Midnight Mission, 601 S. San Pedro St., LA, CA 90014

Chucky Mota has a unique sound that is inspired by some of their favorite bands such as Sublime, 311 and The Beastie Boys. Their style of hardcore punk with hip hop, reggae rock, post-grunge and alternative metal allows the Chucky Mota crew to put on one of the most expressive shows in Los Angeles. Their recently released EP Long Beach, Tx, is available for download and streaming across all major platforms. The Midnight Mission (TMM) welcomes Chucky Mota for their 1st visit to our Music With A Mission program.

WHY: The Midnight hosts Music With A Mission (MWAM) to entertain and inspire those living on Skid Row. Music is a survival tactic for many people in dealing with life's difficulties. MWAM is aimed at bringing our community together through music. MWAM is quite simple. Musicians bring their instruments and play for our homeless and near-homeless guests. It is an intimate setting, so musicians have the opportunity to interact with our guests, answer questions and/or talk about music and its history. We encourage musicians to invite their fan base so they can engage and enjoy music with individuals they would not normally encounter in their daily lives. We are currently looking for sponsors for this ever-growing community event. If you are interested, please contact Georgia Berkovich at 213-624-4588 or gberkovich@midnightmission.org.
